Bachelor of Laws, LL.B.

— DUBAI —

- Sorbonne-Assas International Law School was established by Paris II Panthéon-Assas University to run its international programmes at its campuses in Dubai, Mauritius, Paris and Singapore.
- The LL.B. programme focuses on core domestic, comparative and international legal issues and prepares students with all necessary skills required to pursue postgraduate courses, or embark on a career in the public or private sector at both the national or international levels.
- The course structure is designed to meet the needs of students who would consider to pursue higher studies or a career in countries whose legal system relies on either civil or common law. It features face-to-face lectures and tutorials, delivered by academics from Paris-Panthéon-Assas University and practitioners holding civil, common, and international law backgrounds. It also features modules which aim to provide students with a pluridisciplinary perspective.
